Dear Cera Products

On behalf of the National Guard Marksmanship Training Center, I would like to personally thank you for supporting the 2009 Inter-Service Sniper Sustainment Training Exercise (ISSTE), conducted from November 7-13, 2009.

The National Guard Marksmanship Training Center trains approximately 2,000 Soldiers and Airmen each year to defend our nation's interest at home and abroad. Marksmanship is a perishable skill that must be developed, sustained, and honed to the highest proficiency possible. Any and all contributions that are made to prepare war-fighters only strengthen our country and enhances the military's ability to establish freedom worldwide. Support from individuals and businesses like you, directly impacts Soldier and Airman readiness, morale, and welfare.

Your willingness to participate in the display and your generous donations for the competitors made this exercise an overwhelming success. Thank you again for your attendance and we hope that you will consider us at next year's ISSTE and other Marksmanship Training Events that are planned for 2010.

Warmest Regards,
